

Harvey A. Goldstein CPA

Mr. Goldstein is available to speak at business conferences and to consult with professional organizations on management issues.

Resume

Formerly the Managing Partner (30 years) and Chairman of the Southern California CPA firm SingerLewak LLP formerly know as Singer, Lewak, Greenbaum & Goldstein (SLGG).

He started with SLGG when there were 5 employees and turned over his management responsibilities 30 years later with well over 200 personnel and 30 partners.

Mr. Goldstein was know by his partners as direct, decisive and fair.

Appointed by President Ronald Reagan to the National Productivity Committee.

Appointed by California Governor to the California Small Business Development Board.

Commissioner of Tax at the White House Conference on Small Business.

Mr. Goldstein served on the RNC Small Business Committee as Chairman.

Author of 3 books on Business Management (Up Your Cash Flow, The Hot Dog Syndrome and Don't Bust The Budget, Toss it).

Developer of the software program "Up Your Cash Flow".

During his career he has experienced just about all events any professional firm can experience:

1. Writing and of course rewriting partnership agreements.
2. Development of partnership compensation systems.
3. Developing and implementing marketing programs.
4. Hiring and dismissing partners.
5. Methods of splitting the pie.
6. Dealing with partners leaving the firm.
7. Partner retirement systems both funded and unfunded.
- 8 Succession planning.
9. Firm financial planning.
10. Dealing with partners while on long term disability.
11. Partners leaving and taking clients.
12. Lawsuits to and fro.

Mr. Goldstein has made several hundred presentations and radio and television appearances on a number of business topics.